Elizabeth Early's areas of specialization include divorce, custody, support, equitable distribution, pre and post-nuptial agreements and abuse matters. Liz also serves as a parenting coordinator, court-appointed counsel and guardian for minor children.

Ms. Early is adept in reaching amicable resolutions whenever possible and has served as a court mediator in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Liz currently serves as a court appointed arbitrator for the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas. When litigation is required, she is prepared to argue skillfully for her client's rights.

Liz has added licensed parenting coordinator to her skillset. Parenting coordination in PA is a tool available to parties in contentious custody cases that aims to help the parties resolve minor disputes in custody without repeated visits to the Court.

Ms. Early is an active member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Montgomery County Bar Association and a frequent speaker and writer on family law issues at the local and state levels.

Liz has been recognized as a Pennsylvania Super Lawyer "Rising Star" by Philadelphia Magazine as well as a "Top Attorney" by both Montco Happening Magazine and Bucks Happening Magazine.

Ms. Early practices in Bucks County, Chester County, Delaware County, Montgomery County, and Philadelphia County.
