

Kimberly J. Krzyzaniak, is a dedicated family lawyer with a primary focus on divorce, custody, support, and mediation. Her experience extends to specialized areas, including gray divorce and grandparent custody. Kim serves clients in Delaware, Chester, and Montgomery counties along the Main Line. Kim approaches each case with an eye to the individual. She can assist clients with unique solutions such as pre and post marital agreements and mediation.

Kim is an active member of the Delaware County Bar Association. She is a past chair of its Family Law Committee and on the executive committee of the Guy G. deFuria American Inn of Court.

Kim considers herself a mediation-friendly divorce attorney and frequently collaborates with various Main Line mediation groups. Her academic background includes a Juris Doctor from the Charles Widger School of Law at Villanova University.

Education

- Charles Widger School of Law - Villanova University, J.D.
- Albion College - B.A. - Sociology / Women's Studies

Professional Affiliations & Honors

- Delaware County Bar Association
- Family Law Committee - Past Chair
- Montgomery County Bar Association
- Super Lawyers Rising Stars List

Areas of Practice

- Family Law
- Divorce
- Gray Divorce
- Family Law ADR
- ADR - Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Equitable Distribution
- Child Support
- PFA Order
- Marital Agreements
- Cohabitation Agreements
- Adoption in PA
- Custody
- Same-Sex Marriage and Divorce
- Spousal Support, APL and Alimony

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania